To,

Emperor Palpatine,
The Emperor of the Galaxy,
Senate Chambers,
Coruscant

Dear Sir,

Sub: Request to minimise tyranny across the galaxy.

By means of introduction, I am a citizen who has been humbly serving your vision ever since the Empire was formed. I have been a great supporter of many of your policies. However, I understand the recent reforms introduced regarding incarceration and indentured servitude to build the Empire's machinations might be detrimental to the morale of the society.

I would therefore like to request you to reconsider the harsh and arbitrary punishments levied to the many good and honourable citizens of the Galactic Empire. Many of us would gladly serve the empire without coercion. However, the threat of falling into the snares of the law and being shipped off to some prison manufacturing facility is somewhat gravely discouraging.

Thank you for your consideration!

Yours sincerely,
Luthen

Dear Vel,

I hope things are going well for you in the spider-planet. Have you made contact with my other associates? How is Keef Girgo settling in with you all?

I heard the weather there has been getting worse and worse over time and that dark clouds hang over the citadel. Have you had a chance to wander around and take in some of the sights before the weather took a turn for the worse?

Out here in the Capital planet, things have been rather frightening. The new rules have made it impossible for people to gather and to talk, as we used to. I have been struggling to make sense of how we are to make our way through this, but I know we can do this together. After all, I have friends everywhere.

I look forward to hearing from you when the situation improves.

Yours faithfully,
Luthen Rael

P.S. - I have sent over a transmission to the Emperor about his new policies.
